

DEL-FI

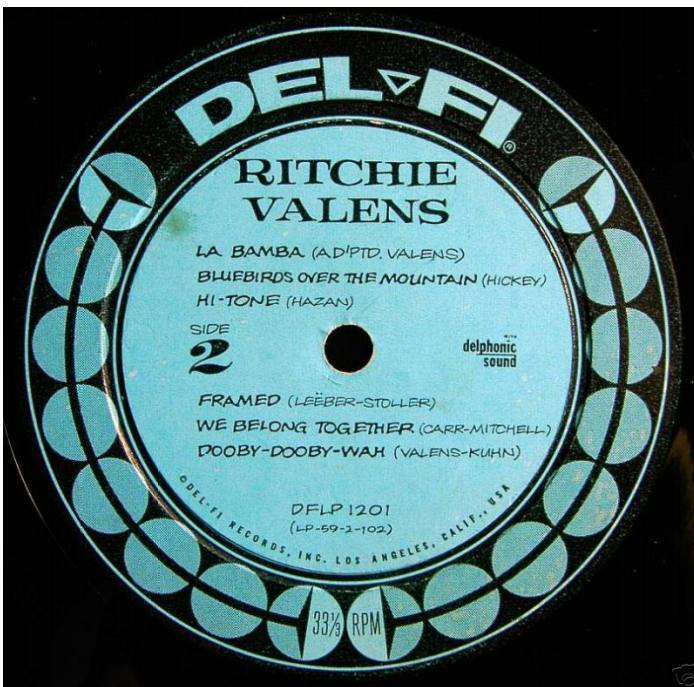

History: The Del-Fi label was formed by Bob Keane in 1957. Bob was a clarinetist who played in Artie Shaw's Band and later, he worked for the Keen label. They released only about 50 LPs from 1959 to 1964.

Mono/Stereo identification: On early issues, adding a "-S" suffix to the number denoted the Stereo. On later issues, Mono LPs were identified with a DFLP prefix to the number while Stereo LPs had a DFST prefix.
